

EMAIL TEMPLATE – Thank you for considering us

This, or a similar email, really is worth sending – remember that until the house sitters arrive for the assignment there is always the potential for something to change.

If for any reason the selected house sitters do not proceed with the assignment, you may be contacted, especially if you've been professional in your responses.

Hello <home owner name>

Reference: <number or date of assignment>

We were disappointed not to be selected for this assignment, but we'd like to thank you for considering us. Thank you too for taking the time to let us know your decision.

If you ever need the services of professional house sitters in the future, please keep us in mind, and don't hesitate to contact us for an update on our availability. For now, we wish you a great vacation and a successful house sitter experience!

Best wishes
Vanessa and Ian
